(the habit of speaking loosely) or governing an object (the idea of building him a house). This use, peculiar to E, led to introduction of perf., fut., & pass. forms (having killed, being killed). The substantival nature of -ing is marked by the possess. case or adj. that often precedes it (after John's behaving so badly, upon my granting the request); but mod. tendency is to drop the possess. sign exc. with pronn. or single nn. Meanings: (1) vbl action (bicycling, forebodings), esp. as occupation (banking) or as inflicted (thrashing), or formed f. nn. As result of the confusion, some constructions gerundial in orig. now appear participial, as he went hunting (i.e. on hunting, vbl n.), the ark was building (on building). On the other hand, some wds in -ing that might be explained as attrib. nouns in -ING<sup>1</sup> are perh. better regarded as quasi-pass. participles (washing the, cooking apple, breech-loading gun). Comps are formed with advv. & adjj. (well-meaning, fair-seeming; for stress cf. -EN<sup>2</sup>), & with objective nn. (cheese-paring, heart-breaking; stressed on first component).
